FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

bit-x-bit Welcomes New Vice-President, Expands Forensic Analysis and E-Discovery Team

PITTSBURGH, October 1, 2010—Joseph Decker, Esq. joins bit-x-bit as Vice President and General Counsel, bringing with him more than 25 years of experience as a business litigator and trial attorney.

“With the addition of Joe Decker and his professional legal, technical and management skills, we can expand our capabilities and offer our clients a depth of experience and service unmatched by most e-discovery and forensic firms in the region,” said Susan Ardisson, Chief Executive Officer of bit-x-bit. “We are fortunate to be in a position of significant growth, and look forward to improving our level of service to our clients and expanding our company.”

Mr. Decker is co-chair of the ACBA’s Technology Utilization Committee and is a frequent writer and speaker on e-discovery issues. He was responsible for creating and developing his law firm’s in-house electronic discovery department. He graduated magna cum laude from Syracuse University in 1976, and received his J.D. with honors from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1985, where he was Articles Editor for the Law Review.

His responsibilities with bit-x-bit include business and market development, client project management, and company legal matters. Mr. Decker is licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and California, and has appeared in trial and appellate courts throughout the country.
